Dedication

Through these years we have come to know and love one of the community's respected citizens. At this time in recognition of we dedicate this 1977-78 Proctorian to him for his interest in and devotion to us students and our community.

Chittenden, VOC, Woodsy, auto mechanics, sprinkle.

Seniors

Varsity Soccer

Once again Proctor made it to the familiar Centennial Field in Burlington for the State finals only to be disappointed by being beaten by Wilmington. Despite the unhappy ending they still have their 10-5 season record and are looking forward to next year with only 5 graduating. Kirk "A" was chosen MVL All-Star for his fine show of skill.

All-Star
Kirk Abrahamson

JV Soccer

The JV soccer team finished with a 5-1-1 record including 2 sudden-death overtime games. Dick Anderson, Charlie Zani, and Bernie Loso were the team's high scorers. Many players are looking forward to varsity play next year.

L — r, Mgr. H. Sienkiewicz, C. Zani, E. Hansen, P. Jalbert, P. Curtis, W. Tarazewich, K. Jones, J. LaFrance, J. Grimes, M. Miglorie, M. King, D. Anderson, B. Loso, D. Garrow, M. Fiske, Z. Horvath, L. Young, S. Mitowski, J. Matusiak

Jr. High Soccer

This year's jr.-high soccer team showed height did not mean a thing. This was proven true by the many 5'2" boys who played to a 9-1 season record, one of the best jr.-high sports records ever.

Varsity Field Hockey

Coach Crosby's team had a rebuilding season. Losing many starters to graduation, the team felt growing pains and unfortunately the results of their hard work showed late in the season. With only 3 seniors leaving the varsity squad hopes for an undefeated season next year. Special thanks to the Phantom Booster Club for the new uniforms.

Standing, E. Socinski, D. Degnen, B. Weidman, R. Felie, N. Izzo, B. Triller, C. Jalbert, P. Visi, L. Tillberg, K. Blanchard, K. Russell, C. Burgess, Coach Crosby, P. Finch; Kneeling, S. Loso, E. Soulia, M. Cook, S. Degnen, L. LaFrance, A. Jasmin, T. Caceres, D. Anderson, J. Simonds

JV Field Hockey

Paula Stoddard, the new JV coach, led her team through a season of which they can be proud. Defeating many more experienced teams, they will be a tough team to play next year. Newly learned skills and more experience will be beneficial to the '79 team.

Jr. High Field Hockey

Kneeling, L. Mecier, M. Curtis, R. Triller, L. King, K. Goodrich, L. Young; Standing, Mgr. M. Smith, M. Smiel, E. Tilden, S. Tilden, L. LaFrance, K. Burgess, J. Curtis, M. Robertson, L. Pilcher, Coach Young

The jr. high team had a thrilling 8-1-1 season, losing only to Rutland Town and tying Mill River. Only 4 goals were scored against the team!

Varsity Cheerleading

If there was such a thing as Cheerleading Tournaments, there would be no question this squad would be tops. They did an excellent job of making up new and different cheers and always keeping fans involved. With three seniors leaving next year this will mean a fresh start for the three remaining squad members.

Top to Bottom: S. Degnen; D. Anderson; T. Lertola; S. Ratti; B. Weidman; A. Loso

Varsity Boys' Basketball

Supporting an impressive 15-8 overall record this team will never forget what it is to have a height advantage, after losing to a tall Blue Mountain team in the Semi-Finals. Co-captain All-Star Kirk "A", a team mainstay throughout the season, was an MVL high scorer. Next year should be interesting as half the team graduated and Coach Mitchell retired.

From Left: F. Weidman, Manager M. Curtis, G. Curtis, M. Jones, J. Gray, J. Stratton, Coach Mitchell, R. Tanner, P. Garrow, K. Abrahamson, T. Downs, D. Riggs

Varsity Basketball

This year's 2-15 record doesn't reflect the season well as 7 losses were by 5 points or less, and Gail was named to the All-Star team as one of the league's high scorers. Coach Wolyneec came out of retirement for a struggling girls' team. Despite finding them and their problems quite different from his previous teams, he did give them guidance they will carry with them to a more fulfilling season next year.

Kneeling, D. Provencher, G. Del Bianco; Standing, C. Catterton, S. Reta, K. Triller, D. Degnen, B. Triller, D. Trombley, J. Covell, E. Socinski, L. LaFrance, M. Cook, S. Senecal, Coach Wolyneec; Missing, P. Visi, Mgr. T. McGee

Gail DelBianco

JV Girls' Basketball

This year's team with a 5-12 record was the first JV team to play in a tournament. With this experience and a full 17-game schedule they should improve their record next year. The team was led by Cara Burgess, Deb Degnen, and Beth Triller.

L — r, Coach Orvis, L. Tillberg, S. Loso, A. Jasmin, C. Catterton, D. Degnen, C. Burgess, B. Triller; missing, K. Russell, P. Finch, N. Izzo, D. Peters

JH Girls' Basketball

Coach Nancy Curtis led her team to a 10-3 season, posting the most successful jr. high girls' record ever at PHS. The team was led by their co-captains, Lisa King defensively and Reeny Triller offensively. With this year behind them the 8th graders are looking forward to JV action.

L — r, M. Smiel, C. Izzo, K. Burgess, M. Curtis, A. Jones, E. Tilden, T. Loso, S. Tilden, M. Robertson, M. Smith, R. Triller, K. Goodrich, L. King, L. Pilcher

JV Basketball and Cheerleading

The JV basketball team was coached by rookie Kevin Keefe. Their record for the year was 9-18. However, the team did take 3rd place in the West Rutland Tournament, making this the first JV team ever to do so. The JV cheering squad consisted of Geri Matusiak, Trini Caceres, Randee Felie, Cathy Supancic, Ellen Smith, Conni Jalbert, and Ellen Soulia. These girls spent many hours after school practicing moves, timing, and rhythm. They created many new cheers which kept up the PHS spirit.

Standing, H. Sienkiewicz, D. Anderson, B. Skjetne, M. Miglorie, Z. Horvath, C. Zani, E. Racette; Kneeling, C. Perkins, J. Morgan

Standing, Coach Godlewski, P. Lasky, F. Goodrich, W. Trombley, S. Stratton, E. Supancic, R. Jalbert; Kneeling, B. Adams, J. Fiske, K. Ratti, S. Anderson

Jr. High Basketball and Cheerleading

The jr. high boys had an exciting season, finishing with a good record. Ending the season was the annual "peanut game" where they played the varsity girls. They won again but by a smaller margin this year. The jr. high cheerleaders with their advisors Ann Loso, Sue Degnen, and Diane Anderson worked hard on their cheers after school. The result was the first place trophy in the cheerleading competition. Watching these girls you can see the judges made the right choice.

This year's All-Sports Banquet was held on May 6 with John Zawistowski welcoming guests and athletes to the festivities. After a spaghetti dinner, Dave Frederickson from Mt. Anthony spoke to the group. Many awards were presented to deserving athletes, among which was the Buzzell Gallus Award given to senior Steve Buzzell.

A new '78 golf team was organized under the direction of Jim Wolyne. Several matches were played against area schools.

Varsity Baseball

The baseball season ended in W. Rutland after a semi-final loss. This marked the first time in a few years PHS didn't have a state championship team in at least one sport. This fine '78 team finished 13-5 MVL Champs and contributed Paul Garrow and Kirk "A" to the MVL All-Star team.

L — r, Coach Mitchell, P. Javory, K. Blanchard, G. Valloch, K. Dorr, B. Skjetne, R. Moran, S. Lamphere, K. Abrahamson, R. Dorr, G. Curtis, H. Sienkiewicz, P. Jalbert, W. Tarazewich, M. Fiske, P. Garrow, J. Stratton

JV Baseball

The first JV baseball team at PHS will be looking to improve their record next season and possibly fill it up a little more. Coached by Dave Buskey they ended their 5-game schedule 2-3.

L — r, P. Curtis, R. Whitehair, D. Garrow, P. Jalbert, J. Murdock, B. Skjenne, C. Perkins, W. Tarazewich, K. Jones

Varsity Softball

Another building season has ended; however, the record has improved on last year's. Many games were decided by only a few runs, and behind the excellent pitching of co-captain All-Star Gail DelBianco the team won 4 out of 14 times out. Everyone is looking forward to a good season next year with 8 out of 9 starters returning.

Left, Manager K. Weeler, G. Matusiak, T. Varga, S. Loso, K. Lodmell, C. Jalbert, T. McGee, P. Visi, Stat. C. Cook, Coach Dorr, L. LaFrance, D. Trombley, J. Covell, K. Triller, Co-captains, G. DelBianco, S. Senecal

JV Softball

The first J. V. Softball team at PHS started out slowly. Playing only 5 games the many freshman players were helped out by some varsity to fill up their team. First-year coach Pam Shostak volunteered her services and skill to make this team possible.

German Trip

During April vacation, six students and Ms. Young went to Germany and Austria. They saw several famous sights and visited Inge and Harold Posch, friends of Ms. Young in Vienna. Everyone was thrilled by their experiences.

MAJORETTES: S. Ratti, C. Santoro, K. Blanchard, J. Simonds, D. Martinez, M. Izzo, T. Lertola, K. Russell

The 1978 majorettes marched in the Loyalty Day, Memorial Day, and All-State Music Festival parades. They were the same group as in 1977, which gave them well developed techniques and routines for this year.

Majorettes

Band

The band, conducted by Mrs. Coughenour, was extremely active as always. It participated in the spring and winter concerts, graduation, marched in 3 parades and will, in large part, be in summer band for practice, experience, and fun. All in all it was a good year!

AV Personnel

The AV Crew was helpful to the teachers and students. They made sure that the equipment was delivered, picked up and readily available for others to use.

G. Valloch, S. Sule, E. Anderson

The 1977-78 library aides were indispensable to the library. They checked out and shelved books in addition to clerical work.

Gym show '78

Ms. Crosby organized another entertaining gym show. She and the gymnasts put a lot of time and hard work into the exhibition. Kixie Austin was the coach for the boys.

Muppets

The Muppet Club performed at various places. They visited the Brandon Training School where their show was appreciated and enjoyed. They also played for the elementary and high schools. This hard-working group, led by Ms. Liberty, is very enthusiastic and will be very busy in the future.
